GETTING TO KNOW...

DR. MATTHEW J. MANNINO

Using the principles he now teaches, Dr. Matt built one of the largest solo Chiropractic practices in the nation. He created his company, Source Trainings, LLC, to empower others in achieving their dreams through a unique blend of the Science of Success and the Supernatural Laws that govern it. Utilizing accelerated learning techniques and high impact experiential presentations, Dr. Matt engages his seminar participants and keynote audiences to truly transform their lives by exposing and eliminating root causes of life's challenges versus merely treating symptoms. As an industry leader in personal development and an expert and innovator in the neurosciences, Dr. Matt has taken his unparalleled system of personal transformation, Quantum Emergence, into corporations, colleges, small and home based businesses, and nonprofit organizations worldwide serving all levels of personal and professional growth. His seminars, keynotes, products and services are designed to maximize learning and bridge the gap between intangible theories of creating lasting change and proven down to earth "how to" applications.

As a successful entrepreneur in multiple industries, Dr. Matt is driven by the knowledge that every human being has within them the ability to live their dreams and manifest the life they were created for. Over the past 25 years he has helped thousands of people reach a greater level of health, wealth and life fulfillment.

TESTIMONIALS

“FOUR DAYS FOR RESULTS!... Seriously, who does that? Well I did. After studying the blogs on Quantum Emergence.com I found myself on a webinar with Dr. Matt about “limiting beliefs” which led to even more questions so I obtained a copy of his e-book on the website. In 2 days the university I have been wanting to attend enrolled me for the 2013 fall session with a scholarship. After the fourth day, my other desire to become ordained, my certification appeared!... It really is exactly as he describes were manifesting and creating seems effortless.”

“Dr. Matt, Thank you for sharing your inspiring message at Parker Las Vegas. Those in attendance were thrilled with your presentation.”

Dr. Gilles Lamarche,

Vice President of Development Parker University

“Dr. Matt, after working with you, I got clear that the story that I created about being “not good enough” was why I was experiencing discomfort and stress instead of excitement about my work. I let this belief go by taking responsibility for creating it. I now have less stress, I love more, my ability to feel and read the emotions of others is at an all-time high and I am more confident when approaching large corporate clients about my social media services. I am speedily transitioning from a struggling entrepreneur to a business leader whose knowledge and services are in demand.”
